

Seeking Stroke Survivors' for Research Study

Feedback on a New Virtual Reality Tool for Hand and Arm Recovery

RENEURAL

University of Hertfordshire UH

Centre for Applied Clinical, Health and Care Research

NeuroVive is an innovative, home-based virtual reality platform created to support stroke recovery. We're inviting you to test the system and share your feedback. By participating, you'll play a role in refining this tool to better serve the needs of stroke survivors.

For more information and eligibility:

VRstudy@herts.ac.uk

07974 055 550

Ethics approved by the Health, Science, Engineering & Technology ECDA:
UH protocol number 0191 2025 Feb HSET

CLICK HERE TO EMAIL THE RESEARCHERS